

We are representing all students. We need to approach issues and conversations with our “hat” or lens on this Board. I have broken this rule as well over the years, and I’m going to tighten this focus up. We cannot focus on our own child’s school or their experience. We must ä cae

